

Jeremy is an Electrical Safety Officer with Technical Safety BC, operating in Port Alberni and the central west coast of Vancouver Island including Bamfield, Ucluelet, and Tofino. Jeremy has worked as an Electrical Safety Officer for almost ten years, including three as a local SO with the City of Vancouver, and more than five with Technical Safety BC in Cranbrook and on Vancouver Island. He is an active participant in code development, as a Technical Sub-Committee member of Sections 10, 62, and 86. He is the secretary of the International Association of Electrical Inspectors (IAEI) BC Chapter, and 2nd Vice President of the Canadian Section. He lives in Port Alberni, BC with his wife and two children, and can be reached at jeremy.overton@technicalsafetync.ca.