

Shawn Gray

ConstructIQ Advisory

Shawn Gray, founder of ConstructIQ Advisory, and VP of Prairies PropTech Association, is someone who has walked the walk on adopting meaningful applications of AI in construction. With nearly 20 years industry experience, his portfolio encompasses over $5B in completed construction projects, spearheading dozens of data and AI- initiatives with a global impact worth over $25 Billion in construction and has propelled over 500 professionals towards adopting technologies to do more with less.

Since the founding of ConstructIQ in 2023, Shawn's focus has been on improving productivity and profitability among mission critical small-medium sized firms. He has since unlocked over $3M in savings for those businesses to invest in new technology and driven over $1.35M in AI-adoption across dozens of firms.

Shawn has been recognized as a 'Top-global-innovator', 'Top-40-under-40, and 'Most -influential' in construction', and is currently spearheading the national 'AI Adoption Proof of Value Initiative'. For more information, visit: www.constructiqadvisory.ca
