

Ben Taddei

Conwest Developments

Ben is a Partner and the Chief Operating Officer at Conwest Developments, one of Vancouver's leading privately held development companies. Conwest has been active in the Greater Vancouver Area for over 40 years and has current business lines in industrial, commercial, and residential development as well as in civil infrastructure construction.

Ben has over three decades of development and construction experience within Greater Vancouver with a strong reputation as a strategist, entrepreneur, innovator, and business operator. He's been part of leading and building some of the strongest brands in the local development industry and has delivered innovative projects across the residential, industrial, retail, and commercial sectors.

Ben has been instrumental in leading his companies to win several of the most prestigious awards in the real estate development industry, including: ULI Global Award for Excellence, ULI Americas Awards for Excellence in multiple years, CHBA Grand Sam Award for Excellence in Building and Marketing New Homes, GVHBA Grand Ovation Awards for Builder of the Year, and countless other CHBA, GVHBA, ULI, and UDI awards