

Dane is responsible for finding energy solutions for new and existing Commercial and Industrial customers, as well as managing the team of technical advisors that deliver electric efficiency incentives. Dane is a P. Eng who holds a degree in Electrical Engineering as well as a Field Safety Representative Class A designation. He has been working with FortisBC for the past 5 years. Prior to FortisBC, he spent 7 years working for Imperial Oil (Esso) at Strathcona Refinery in Edmonton, AB.